A network of inlets, bays, nearly 1200 islands, and islets that has been continuously inhabited for over 5000 years, it’s no wonder that the historic town of Trogir is an UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city is a true gem, where ancient history meets modernity, making it a must-visit destination for any traveler. With its charming cobblestone streets, stunning architecture, and beautiful beaches, Trogir offers something for everyone.

Day 7 | Split
Departure for Split. Cross the Sibenik Bridge and arrive to the historic town of Sibenik, known as the Pearl of the Adriatic. Enjoy a leisurely stroll around the picturesque old town and explore the beautiful churches and monasteries. Visit the stunning Cathedral of St. Lawrence, built in the 12th century, whose construction was completed in the 14th century. The cathedral is a masterpiece of Gothic and Renaissance architecture and contains many valuable artworks, including the famous bronze doors crafted by the renowned Italian artist Andrea del Castagno.

Free Time: Enjoy a leisurely walk around the old town, admiring its stunning architecture and enjoying the beautiful views of the Adriatic Sea. If you're interested in history, you can visit the Sibenik Archaeological Museum to learn more about the town's rich past. For those who prefer a more active experience, you can go hiking or cycling in the surrounding hills and mountains.

Note: The Walking Level for this day is moderate, as it involves walking on cobblestones, unpaved paths, and through narrow streets. It is suitable for those with a normal level of fitness.

Day 8 | Trogir
Board a ferry for a gentle cruising across the Brač Channel, delight in the views of the coastal towns and villages, and enjoy a typical bean soup, or peka, a traditional Croatian dish. Arrive to Trogir, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and explore the town's unique blend of Roman and Venetian architecture. Visit the stunning Cathedral of St. Lawrence, which was built in the 12th century and later added a Gothic facade in the 13th century. The church is a masterpiece of gothic design and contains many valuable artworks, including the famous bronze doors crafted by the renowned Italian artist Andrea del Castagno.

Free Time: Free time for leisure activities. Participants may wish to tour the island of Korcula, visit the historic town of Dubrovnik, or explore the beautiful beaches of the Dalmatian Coast. For those interested in history, you can visit the Museum of the Croatian War of Independence to learn more about the country's complex and contentious Yugoslav wars.

Note: The Walking Level for this day is moderate, as it involves walking on cobblestones, unpaved paths, and through narrow streets. It is suitable for those with a normal level of fitness.

Day 11 | Dubrovnik
Spend the day exploring a trove of attractions in Dubrovnik. Some of the top sights include the Old Town walls, the Franciscan Monastery, the Benedictine Monastery, and the Cathedral of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary. You can also take a boat tour to see the beautiful Lokrum Island, which is home to a beautiful park and a medieval monastery. In the evening, enjoy an authentic dining experience, such as a traditional peka dinner or a seafood platter at one of the many local restaurants.

Free Time: Free time for leisure activities. Participants may wish to take a boat tour to Lokrum Island, visit the Dominican Monastery, or explore the historic old town. For those interested in history, you can visit the Museum of the Maritime Culture to learn more about the city's rich maritime history.
