Dear Alumni and Friends,

We are pleased to invite you on a Cuban journey of discovery. For two decades, travel to this vibrant Caribbean nation has been strictly regulated, but recent events have made it easier for U.S. citizens to experience life on this beautiful island.

U.S.-based educational and cultural exchange programs like ours require the full-time participation of each person on the trip. You will have meaningful interaction with the Cuban people, and impose on AHI the obligation to ensure that participants in our cultural exchange programs participate in a full-time schedule of activities that will result in a substantive exchange and understanding of American and Cuban cultures.

The general license for this program, administered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury, under Regulations of the Office of Foreign Assets Control, enables U.S. citizens to travel to Cuba under a specific Exchange Visitor program and facilitates the cultural and educational exchanges. Our Declaration of Exchange Visitor status must be on file with the U.S. Treasury Department’s Cuban Assets Control Regulations.

Space on this amazing eight-night journey is limited to 28 travelers. Be sure to make your reservations today.

Sincerely,

Amy Eckert

Dear Alumni and Friends,

We are pleased to invite you on a Cuban journey of discovery. For two decades, travel to this entrancing Caribbean nation has been strictly regulated, but recent events have made it easier for U.S. citizens to experience life on this beautiful island.

More than being shaped by travel experts to comply with U.S. regulations, the journey puts you in contact with Cuban artists, writers, historians, musicians, culinary professionals and others who provide unique insights into Cuba's culture and heritage. The trip's curatorial satisfaction is a tribute to Castro-era Cuba; however, the Cuban Revolution continued to impact Cuba, as it is an authentic exploration of Cuba's artistic and cultural heritage.
