Southern England's charm is evident in its rolling hills, picturesque villages, and stunning architecture. From the medieval cathedrals of Canterbury to the grandeur of Windsor Castle, each location offers a glimpse into the region's rich history and culture. The Cotswolds, with their iconic stone cottages and rolling countryside, make for a picturesque day trip, perfect for those who appreciate the beauty of the countryside. The Blacksheep Inn, located in the heart of the Cotswolds, offers a cozy atmosphere and traditional English cuisine, making it the perfect spot for a leisurely lunch or dinner.

Day 1: London A three-night stay in London launches your tour. Arrive in London, transfer to your hotel, then spend the afternoon at leisure. Tonight, enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 3: London | Canterbury Discover the historic city of Canterbury, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with a visit to the iconic Canterbury Cathedral. This grand edifice has been a center of religious and cultural life for centuries, and its intricate stained glass windows and vaulted ceilings are a testament to the skill and craftsmanship of the time. Discover the local lore of Anne Boleyn, the young woman who was once a Maid of Honour at the palace before becoming Queen of England. Stroll through the charming streets of Canterbury, known for its narrow lanes, shops, and restaurants, and take in the atmosphere of this historic city.

Day 5: London | Oxfordshire | Stratford-upon-Avon A day of exploring the Cotswolds.

Day 6: Oxfordshire | Blenheim Palace A day of exploring the Cotswolds.

Day 7: Oxfordshire | Blenheim Palace A day of exploring the Cotswolds.

Day 9: London | Farewell Enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant before your flight home.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

One of the highlights of your springs break experience through British culture, history and traditions. From your reservation to your return home, we are here to ensure you have the adventure of a lifetime.

Our professional team is committed to providing an experience that features exciting excursions, knowledgeable guides and a unique blend of history and culture. From the ancient ruins of Stonehenge to the beautiful gardens of Hidcote, our program spans the breadth of the British Isles, offering a glimpse into the past and present of this remarkable nation.

Meet your trip leaders and explore the rich history and culture of England, Wales, and Scotland. From the bustling streets of London to the scenic beauty of the countryside, our program is designed to provide an unforgettable travel experience.

Before you go:

• Begin your discovery in Canterbury, the namesake of Chaucer’s anthology. Then stroll through the streets and visit ancient monuments.
• Experience the grandeur of Blenheim Palace, the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill.

We look forward to welcoming you to England, where your journey will take you on a fascinating exploration of history, culture, and architecture.

Sincerely,

Amy Graham
