The People of Tanzania

Tanzania is home to about 57 million people with the largest concentrations in the urban areas of Dar es Salaam, Arusha, Mwanza and the capital, Dodoma. Approximately 120 African ethnic groups. The Garden of Eden.

The Serengeti Region

The Serengeti region gained fame as the setting for the film The Lion King and the classic novel Journey to the Center of the Earth. The Serengeti’s staggering diversity of wildlife is a wonder to behold. From tiny, precocious and newly fledged elephants born each year on the Serengeti Plains to adult great white rhinos, this is an experience that will take your breath away.

The story of Tanzania is one of vast diversity. This East African nation is home to an incredible range of wildlife, and its landscapes are some of the most dramatic on earth. From the towering peak of Kilimanjaro to the vast expanses of the Serengeti, Tanzania offers a unique environment that guarantees a memorable and rewarding wildlife safari. Here, you can immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings. This experienced Safari Director shares with you the essentials of your destination, ensuring that you get the most out of your safari experience.

By eliminating logistical worries, your Safari Director allows you to pursue the highlights of Tanzania. On your Safari, you will experience the beauty of Africa's pristine wilderness and its rich cultural history.

Day 1 | Arusha, Tanzania

Embark on an exceptional journey amid the untamed beauty of Tanzania. This safari adventure will take you to some of Africa's most famous wildlife reserves.

Day 2 | Tarangire National Park

Descend into the verdant Tarangire National Park. Here, you will have a chance to see a wide range of native and migratory animals, including Africa's largest elephant herds. On your drive, take note of the enormous baobab trees that are found throughout the park.

Day 3 | Ngorongoro Conservation Area

Visit the Ngorongoro Conservation Area, then arrive and check in to the tented Ole Serai Luxury Camp Kuro. Get ready to settle into your private tent, which has guaranteed window seating for all six passengers. A pop-up roof hatch allows unobstructed game viewing and photo opportunities.

Day 4 | Kilimanjaro, Tanzania

Take time to immerse yourself in the local culture. Of utmost importance is your own comfort. The experienced Safari Director will guide you through your adventure, ensuring that you have the most rewarding safari experience possible.

Day 5 | Arusha, Tanzania

Meet villagers and learn about their culture. They are united by a common language, Swahili or Kiswahili, and a sense of national identity. Tanzania is home to about 57 million people with the largest concentrations in the urban areas of Dar es Salaam, Pangani, and Mwanza. Together, these cities account for more than half of the total population. The cultural landscape is diverse, with age-old traditions and modern innovations coexisting harmoniously. The Masai, the largest ethnic group of Tanzania, are a seminomadic people who live in the southeast and southwest regions of the country.
