Nashville, Tennessee
Tennessee’s fast-growing city, known as the “Country Music Capital of the World,” Nashville shines with vibrant restaurants and honky-tonks, charming specialty shops, iconic entertainment venues and legendary nightlife.

Clarksville, Tennessee
Situated near the confluence of the Cumberland and Red Rivers, Clarksville is renowned for its lively downtown district, where you’ll find plenty of local boutiques, breweries and restaurants as well as the landmark Roxy Regional Theater and beautiful Customs House Museum.

Dover, Tennessee
Discover the laid-back, small-town allure of Dover, where beautiful scenery awaits along the Cumberland River, and rich Civil War history comes alive at Fort Donelson National Battlefield and Cemetery, site of one of the first significant Union victories.

Savannah, Tennessee
Set on the banks of the Tennessee River, Savannah invites visitors to explore its well-preserved heritage and collection of splendid homes and trails. Outside of town is the unforgettable Shiloh National Military Park, site of the Civil War’s largest engagement in the Mississippi Valley.

Paducah, Kentucky
Founded by William Clark following his westward journey with Meriwether Lewis, Paducah bears the name of an Indian chief and the legacy of a Union supply hub on the Tennessee and Ohio Rivers during the Civil War. Today it’s driven by the arts; wall murals adorn a massive downtown floodwall and the refurbished Hotel Metropolitan salutes legends who played here like Ellington, Armstrong and Calloway.

New Madrid, Missouri
The oldest city west of the Mississippi, New Madrid is famous for enduring powerful earthquakes in the early 1800s and for the Civil War’s Battle of Island Number Ten. Boasting a storied past, this Missouri city retains the Southern charm it’s held since the last days of the 1700s.
