A land of spectacular biological diversity and culture, the wonders of South Africa exceed the imagination. Encircled by mountains and the sea, Cape Town is nestled in the idyllic southwest corner of Africa. The city is small, but brimming with history and a fascinating, diverse culture. Next, experience a three-night luxury safari on a private game reserve near world-famous Kruger National Park, one of the most game-rich parks in the region. See a bit of Johannesburg before embarking on a deluxe train journey to Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe, aboard Rovos Rail. After admiring the awe-inspiring falls, continue to Chobe National Park, known for its large elephant population, in Botswana.
